Dear Anu,
How are you? I hope you are keeping well and a you new place. I hope you are still in the like on the last Sunday from your letter. I could understand that you are eagerly waiting to hear about my state.
Kerala. Do you know? Anu Kerala is something really and a platform of cultural values Kerala culture is unique and abundant with the glorious past of ancient India. It is a beautiful place which is filled with Kerala's most beautiful hills and these are many aspects about Kerala. I will share some aspects about Kerala with you. Kerala which is known as the land of performing arts. The National Emblem of this State is such that our state has declared one of its art forms Kathakali as the national performing art of Kerala. Kathakali is a beautiful and traditional performance. Kathakali Anu Kerala you like music so much. Music is the specialty of Kerala Culture.
This State has the very memorable Carnatic Music which is the heart beat of South Indian Music. It is another widely used traditional music style of Kerala. Panchavadyam is a symphonic melody of five types of percussion instruments. Kerala Carnatic and Hindustani is a blend of something of its to be as it's Spices. Spices epitomize the aroma of Kerala. Pepper, vanilla, Cardamom, clove, cinnamon, nutmeg, ginger, turmeric these are the main spices of Kerala. Do you know the taste of Kerala?
For the food that we all are Kerala records a variety of vegetarian and non-vegetarian food which is prepared and served with spices.
Kerala food is famous for all the corners of the world. Kerala Whether it is Kerala 'Kerala' is a language most prepared during festivals and festivals. On a simple rice and coconut preparation falling hand over hand for the food here is an understatement.
As Kerala is the land of Coconuts. Anding cult known as Coconuts and Coconuts isn't that big of a deal. The natives of Kerala speak the language 'Malayalam' meaning 'the Mountain region'. Malayalam name is among the major language of India.
