

A two-day National Seminar on the topic “Resisting Erasure: Vocalisation of Marginalized Narratives and Reclamation of Subaltern Histories” was organized by the Department on 29 and 30 January. The inaugural session on the first day was graced by social activist Daya Bai as the Chief Guest. The second day featured academic sessions led by Ananditha Pan, Assistant Professor, Department of Liberal Arts, IIT Hyderabad, and Mr. Renukumar, a poet, painter, and translator, and a recipient of the Kerala Sahitya Akademi Award for Poetry.

At the valedictory function of the National Seminar, a book titled Seasons, authored by teachers and students of the Department, was released by Shri M. R. Renukumar.
