

Report of Alumnae Meet (2025-26)

ALSTAGIA 2026

Date: 24 January 2026

Venue: Alphonsa College, Pala

Organised by: Alumnae Association, Alphonsa College, Pala

The Alumnae Association of Alphonsa College, Pala, successfully organized the Alumnae Meet titled “Alstagia 2026” on 24 January 2026 at the college campus. The event was aimed to strengthen the bond between former students and the institution while providing a platform for interaction, celebration, and collaboration.

The official meeting commenced at 10:00 a.m. in the College Auditorium and was attended by approximately 500 alumnae representing various batches. The programme began with a formal welcome, setting a cordial and nostalgic tone for the gathering. It was followed by a welcome dance and a prayer song.

The Welcome Address was delivered by Prof. Dr. Sr. Minimol Mathew, Principal, Alphonsa College, Pala. She warmly welcomed the dignitaries and alumnae highlighting the significance of alumnae engagement in sustaining the academic excellence and legacy of the institution. Along the welcome speech the principal also announced the alumnaes that the college is trying to become autonomous. It is also informed in the general body meeting of the alumnaes held in 9th January 2026.

This was followed by the Presidential Address by Dr. Ancy Joseph, President of the Alumnae Association, who emphasized the pivotal role played by alumnae in the growth and development of the college and she encouraged continued association and support.

The Chief Guest, Ms. Kiran Mariya Jose, Assistant Professor, Government Arts and Science College, Trithala, inaugurated the function and delivered an inspiring address. Sharing her experiences as an alumna, she underscored the importance of lifelong connection with one's alma mater and motivated the alumnae to contribute to the academic as well as professional development of current students.

The college honoured the Alphonsian alumnae who won in the local body election held on December 2025. Many of them held prestigious positions in Block, Panchayats and Municipality. The college is proud to have such an array of empowered women leaders who could contribute their best for the society.

The formal session was concluded with words of gratitude by Ms. Rubymol Philip, Secretary of the Alumnae Association, who expressed sincere thanks to the dignitaries, alumnae, organizers, and student volunteers for their wholehearted support and participation.

The meeting was followed by a series of cultural programmes presented by students, including dance and music. Games and competitions for alumnae were also organized, fostering camaraderie and joyful interaction among participants.

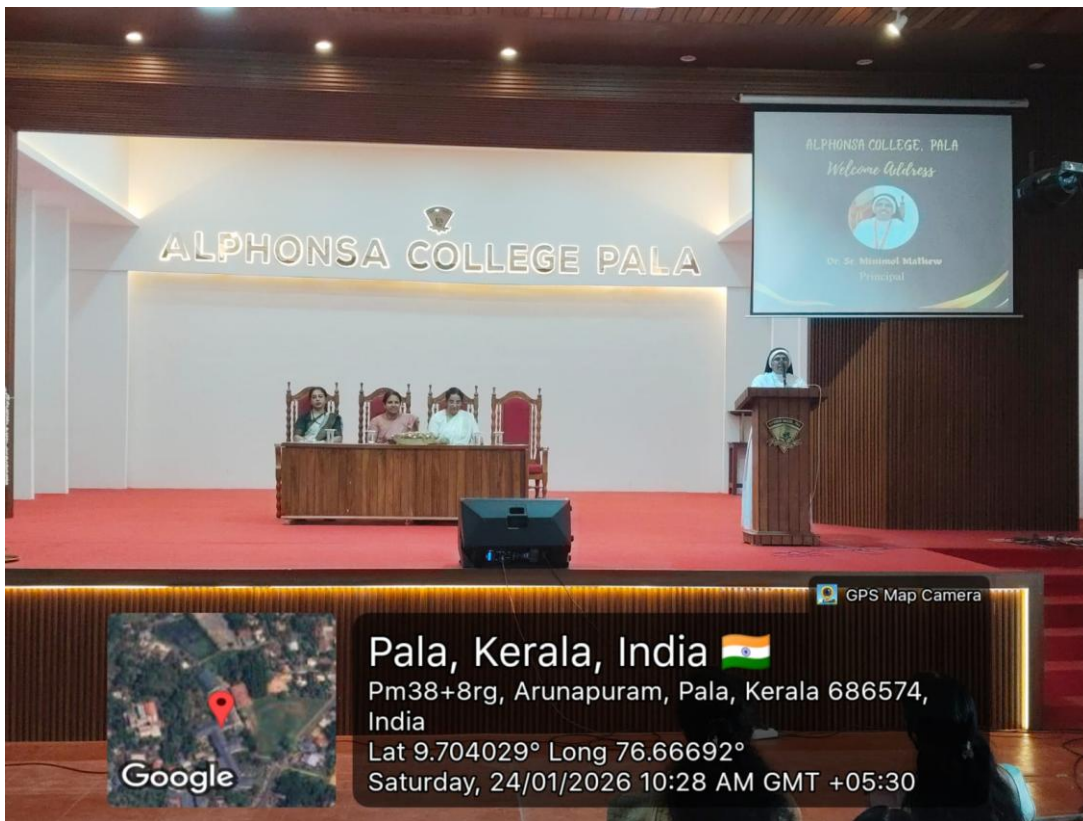

An exhibition-cum-sale was arranged as part of the celebrations, featuring stalls selling food items, dresses, homedecors and accessories. The stalls attracted wide participation and enhanced the festive atmosphere of the event.

In conclusion, Alstagia 2026 was a grand success, marked by enthusiasm, nostalgia, and meaningful interaction. The event reaffirmed the enduring relationship between Alphonso College, Pala, and its alumnae, leaving the participants with cherished memories and a renewed sense of belonging to their alma mater.
